- Introductions
- NNBC Updates
 - Liquid Gold 5k update-May 21st, 2022.
 - Volunteers Needed

- Lauren Williams-registration is opening tonight at 6 PM. Everyone needs to register, post social media shout-outs
- We need 2-3 people to help with timing the race and meet with Ken who has done this for us in the past. This role will include sitting at the finish line to run the timer, write down bib numbers, etc. Race begins at 8 AM, faster runners usually 25 minutes; walkers start at 0830, probably need people who can be available from 8-1030 for this.
- If you have kids in the kids dash their fee will be waived if you are volunteering for timer position
- T-shirts are being finalized for design, still need flyers, those are being worked on tomorrow afternoon.

- Treasurers update
- $12,000.00 in bank-this will help a lot with expenses for LG5k
- We have a tax person now to oversee the tax portion
- Breakdown for costs for Liquid Gold will be forthcoming from Jennifer Delaney
- Task List-will be available as needed so volunteers can see who has helped before, sponsors. This will not be available for editing. A good place to see what positions need to be filled.

- Jacquelyn Bonde-WIC update: Varies across the State of Nevada as to which clinics will continue tele-health appointments and which are seeing people in person.

- Abbott formula recall-Released in February: State of NV team is working with persons affected by recall who can reach out to their clinics for solutions, purchasing options in community.
- For women who are supplementing with formula there is an update on how to safely prepare it. The Facebook page will have that information.
- Amber Hise-nevadabreastfeeds.org Count the Kicks
- Count the Kicks campaign, free app for expectant moms continues to be available through a grant
- Pam Warren-Journal Club: Reach out to be included in the list, RSVP. Can participate in discussion or just read articles, share ideas with each other or feedback.
